

Coastal Rosy Boa

(Lichanura trivirgata)

These extremely docile snakes are one of the slowest moving species in the world and for that reason, tend to make excellent pets.

Don't catch one in the wild though, as they are better for the ecosystem than for your house...

